

Shelter WA and the Community Housing Coalition of WA invite you to a forum examining taxation and affordable housing in WA.

How our tax system affects housing affordability

A non-technical FREE presentation for the affordable housing sector

Dr. Rachel Ong
Curtin Business School Research Fellow and Deputy Director of the Centre for Research in Applied Economics

14 November 2011
10:00am – 11:30am

Claisebrook Lotteries House, 33 Moore Street, East Perth

Dr. Ong's principal research expertise is in housing tax and transfer policies and the dynamics of housing affordability, as well as the links between housing and socio-economic wellbeing. In 2009, Dr. Ong was commissioned by the Henry Review secretariat to examine housing-related tax reforms. She recently co-authored a report on 'Modelling the impacts of the Henry Review tax recommendations on housing supply and affordability', published by the Australian Housing and Urban Research Institute.

Attendance is by registration only (no cost) and morning tea will be provided

RSVP by 7 November to Shelter WA at 9325 6660 or email research@shelterwa.org.au

