Strategic Priority No 1

Championing the development of an effective housing system

Our Strategic Objectives

- Lead strong, courageous, well informed and strategic engagement and advocacy to achieve system reform.
- Lead the development of a shared vision for, and definition of, what an effective housing system constitutes.
- Influence the community, the housing sector, governments, for-profit and not-for-profit sectors through information and evidence sharing, gathering, analysis and distribution.
- Provide timely, proactive and responsive evidence-based policy advice that builds commitment to housing system reform and acknowledges housing as a foundation for social and economic wellbeing and sustainability.

Strategic Priority No 2

Bringing all parts of the housing system together

Our Strategic Objectives

- Lead the development of mechanisms to encourage collaboration, partnerships and innovation to develop integrated, sustainable solutions to WA's housing needs.
- Facilitate alignment of government, industry reform opportunities and initiatives to deliver optimal solutions.
- Lead the development of an effective collaboration between the community, public and private housing sectors, governments, for-profit and not-for-profit sectors, peak and representative bodies, to achieve reform and achieve optimal outcomes through an effective housing system.
