

Parity magazine examines homelessness from personal, local, social, national and global perspectives. Council to Homeless Persons publishes ten editions of Parity each year. Every edition of Parity is devoted to the examination and discussion of a specific theme or set of issues connected to homelessness.

The 2022 Publication Schedule

- March: Homelessness and Social Work
- April: Homelessness and Young People: Support During Troubled Times
- May: "Holding the Line": The Salvation Army's Response to Homelessness (TBC)
- June: Homelessness and Education
- July: Pregnancy and Homelessness
- August: Working Together: The Future of South Australian Homelessness Services
- September: The Victorian Response to Homelessness
- October: Responding to Homelessness in the Northern Territory (TBC)
- November: The Role of Information Technology in the Response to Homelessness
- December: Homelessness and the Law Revisited

Why You Should Subscribe

As Australia's leading national homelessness publication, Parity seeks to cover all aspects of homelessness; its cause and consequences and the policies, program and services developed to prevent, responds to and end homelessness. Parity comprehensively discusses the issues of homelessness by presenting different points of view and perspectives of all those trying to understand and respond to homelessness; including most importantly, those who have experienced homelessness.

Contribute to Parity

CHP members and Parity subscribers are encouraged to contribute to Parity. The copy deadline is usually the second calendar Friday of each month of publication. Suggestions for articles, prospective contributors, input, feedback and letters to the editor are always welcome. Subscribers can also obtain back copies of individual editions, subject to availability, at cost. Likewise, individual articles from back copies can be obtained by subscribers on request. Contact the editor via email at parity@chp.org.au or via the CHP website at chp.org.au

2022 Parity Subscription form

Thinking of subscribing?

See details on reverse

How to subscribe

Subscribe on the CHP Member Portal and never miss an issue:

1. Go to chpaustralia-portal.force.com/members
2. Select 'New User'
3. Choose 'Parity Magazine Subscriber' and fill in your details (It is possible to generate an invoice online before making payment)

Subscribers will have access to every new edition of Parity and to a 13-year back-catalogue.

Fees

The annual Parity subscription fees are:

- Parity Subscriber - 12 months subscription (10 editions): $130
- Parity Concession Subscriber - 12 months subscription (10 editions): $65.

Are you a CHP Member?

If you are a staff member of an existing CHP Organisational Member, you are already entitled to free access to online editions of Parity. Your employer can help you activate your Member Portal profile.

CHP Membership

You can further support Council to Homeless Person's work by becoming a CHP Member. For more details go to chp.org.au/membership-portal

Questions?

If you have any difficulties subscribing, please contact:

- Kelly Shaw: kelly@chp.org.au (03) 8415 6200 or,
- Andrew Edgar: andrew@chp.org.au (03) 8415 6207

2022 Parity Subscription form

